

Contact pediatric unit hematology-oncology/primary immunodeficiencies

UZ Leuven campus Gasthuisberg

E 344 Pediatric hematology-oncology: tel. +32 16 34 34 10

E 305 Pediatric outpatient care unit: tel. +32 16 34 31 41

Permanence Pediatrics: tel. +32 16 34 06 59 / +32 16 34 06 62

700746_v122015_ikben_allog_stamcelTx_KID_ENG

I am an allogeneic stem cell transplant patient (Tx)

of University Hospitals Leuven, Belgium – Pediatric hematology-oncology/primary immunodeficiencies

Attention!

- I have a central line.
- I am immune-compromised and need to be isolated.
- Please do not take my temperature rectally or give me rectal medications.

My name is :

Valid from Tx until

Dr. Sandra Jacobs

Dr. Veerle Labarque

Dr. Isabelle Meyts

Dr. Marleen Renard

Dr. Heidi Segers

Dr. Anne Uyttebroeck

Warning signs

If the following signs or symptoms occur, you must call the pediatric hematology-oncology/primary immunodeficiencies unit:

Infection:

- Temperature higher than 38 °C (or 100.4 °F)
- Chills

Persistent complaints:

- Vomiting during more than 24 hours
- Diarrhea during more than 24 hours and/or more than 4 times a day
- Constipation during more than three days
- Shortness of breath

Bleeding:

- A nosebleed or wounds that does not stop after 30 minutes
- Blood in urine or stool
- Coughing up blood or vomiting blood
- Bruises that are not caused by an injury or fall